ORIENTATION OF NEW BOARDERS

To ensure that the new scholars-in-residence had a very hassle – free time adjusting to their new environment here at Genesis, an orientation programme was held in which they were explained various procedures such as their timetable, schedules, code of conduct, academic expectations and most importantly, the upholding of the Genesis ethos. The programme was conducted by Mr. Pramod Sharma (School Director), Mr. Ajay Singh (Principal- National Curriculum) and Mr. Pradeep Paul (Head- Residences).

HAWAN AND SUKHMANI SAHIB PAATH

On 6th April, 2018 Havan and Sukhmani Sahib Path was organized by our school for the well being of our community, offering fruits to the almighty and distributing prasad later, for a prestigious and prosperous year ahead. Thanking the time which had gone by, students and teachers prayed for a fruitful and a spiritual start to the upcoming session for the greater good and enjoyed the wonderful event with enthusiasm by listening to the sacred havan mantras.

ARTIST CAMP

'Art', an enchanting way of conveying one's thoughts and a bewitching means of communication which never fails to mesmerize the perceiver's eyes, was celebrated in our school in the form of its 'Third Artist Camp' from 11th to 13th April, 2018, featuring five renowned artists Mr. Shyam Sharma from Patna, Mr. Yusuf from Bhopal, Mr. Nawal Kishore from Ghaziabad, Mrs. Annu Naik from Delhi and Ms. Bandana Kumari from Bhopal. These artistes demonstrated and shared their ideas and ways of depicting art with the scholars of our school, with strokes and prints of all kinds of colours and shapes, filling the canvases beautifully and catching the attention of the young viewers.

INTER-HOUSE QUIZ (RESIDENCES)

To test our SIRs knowledge on current affairs and to maximize brain utilization, an Inter House Residence Quiz was held on 21st April, 2018 for both the Senior and Middle schools. Both quizzes had questions that tickled the brains of all team members and it was a tough, neck to neck competition between the four houses. CULINARY EVENT

A small culinary event was organized for our scholars in residence on 22nd April, 2018 in which they were given various food items to make such as Noodles and Sandwiches on which they later relished upon. They enjoyed the event and hoped such fun and interesting events would be held for them in the future.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

A few of our SIRs as a part of their social service project visited the Rama Foundation on 14th April, 2018. It is situated in Noida which helps children get a good education along with proper healthcare and other facilities. It is also a rehabilitation center for the young rape victims. They enjoyed interacting with the children and distributed a variety of goodies like cakes, juice and toys.

A few of our girl SIRs also visited the All India Women's Commission, Delhi on 19th April, 2018 where they got to participate in a discussion regarding the recent events of sexual assault that have been occurring in our country. They also got an opportunity to interact with the Chairperson of Delhi Commission for Women, Ms. Swati Maliwal who is currently on hunger strike to protest against the rape of innocent girls.

MOVIE OUTING

Our scholars in residence spent their monthly holidays off by watching the latest Bollywood film, "October" at Wave Mall on 14th April, 2018.

They also watched Marvels Avengers 'Infinity War' and had a mall outing on 29th April, 2018.

The SIRs had a lot of good feedback to give about the movies and thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCES

King's Academy, in collaboration with Habitat for Humanity International in Jordan, offered an opportunity to participate in a hands-on Round Square service project in Ajloun, Jordan from 1st to 7th April, 2018. The project work included carrying building materials, mixing mortar, laying bricks and bending rebar. The teams spent three nights at a community center in the village. The service project also included a sightseeing trip to Petra, one of Jordan's most famous historic sites, the capital city Amman, the Dead Sea, and Ajloun Castle, as well as a nature hike through Ajloun Forest Reserve. Atharva Agarwal (Class 12) was a part of our school delegation.

An international Round Square Conference was held at the Regent International School, Bangkok in which a few of our SIRs had participated. The theme of the conference was "Exploration". Our scholars had a lot of fun participating in the Barraza Groups and also learnt a lot about the local culture when the school took them sightseeing. It was a learning and an enriching experience overall. The following SIRs took part in this conference: Prakhar Narang (Class 10), Kashish Singh (Class 10) and Abyan Farrukh (Class 8).
