From the Director's Desk

It is with pride and pleasure that I am asked to submit a short brief about this edition of the 'The Bugle'. It is very satisfying as an educator to see the fine work proudly published by our younger students.

Their imagination and creativity are always an inspiration for others, and we should never discourage the love of reading and writing in our children. It would also be neglectful not to recognize the efforts of the teachers and administrators who have encouraged students and assisted in honing their skills and developing a love of reading and writing.

New Bird

One day when I was looking out of the window I saw a NEW BIRD! It was red in the middle and green in its wings. It also had red spots on its wings. I had never seen it before; it was flying when I saw it. It was looking for food and it looked sad. Then it flew away. I hope it finds its food.

Another day when I was looking out of the window again, I saw another new bird! It was white and the tip of its wings where black. It was also flying when I saw it. It was trying to catch a bird for its food. It was looking angry.

I was very happy to see two new birds in the open sky, and I do think that not many people have seen these birds.

Kevin and the Magical Scroll

The whole family was giggling in the living room, due to Dad's funny joke. "Kevin," said Mom, when she finally stopped laughing, "Can you go out fishing and catch some fish for lunch? The market is closed due to Memorial Day".

"Sure, Mom," he replied, "I'll go get some fish."

He put on his shoes, grabbed his umbrella and fishing gear, he jumped on his bike and pushed the pedals, and in a minute or so he was gone.

Kevin, a 10-year-old boy, was very intelligent. He had black hair and eyes, just like his father. He reached the shore. He took out his fishing rod, put some worms and threw the thread in the blue ocean. He caught a lot of fish and started to go home.

Suddenly the clouds became grey, the wind blew stronger and just in that second, a big wave hit the shore. When it went down, Kevin saw something buried in the sand. He went a little closer and saw it was a bottle and something was in it. He picked it up and there was a scroll inside a green glass bottle. He started guessing - was it a message or was it a map? He opened it and whispered what was written in the scroll. 'Secret recipe for making anyone healthy and kill diseases'. He kept the bottle in his bag and made sure that nobody had seen him. He then went home and took a break.

The next day, he walked to the kitchen and took out the ingredients: whole-wheat, tomatoes, onions, oil, cucumbers, kidney beans, some water and 10 lemons.

He took out a pan, started frying, and in the end, it looked like 'chalupa'. He then wanted to try it on his grandfather, who had been ill for some while. At night, when his grandpa was sleeping, he took out his scroll. At the bottom the scroll said, "Eat the magic dish and say this sentence to the person who you would like to make healthy". "Usa Meesa fix ___who___ creato." He then ate the bitter potion and said the magic words, to his grandpa and you know what, the next morning, grandfather was perfectly healthy!

The next day he thought of doing this magic on the whole world. After he had gone to the market, and done his cooking, at night he said "Usa Meesa fix Mother Earth creato." The next day the whole world changed. People were healthy and fit! Then he hid the scroll somewhere so that nobody could find it.

TRANSPORT

Theme: How We Organize Ourselves

Central Idea : Communities make efforts to create transportation systems to meet their needs.

The learners of Grade 1 were inspired by various inventors and took the initiative to become one. They discussed about the past and present means of transport. They put on their thinking caps to draw beautiful illustrations. They spoke during a 'Show and Tell' activity about their future inventions pertaining to different modes of transport. They displayed, they were communicators and thinkers as they came up with very interesting ideas. They also showed their caring side when they spoke about using less petrol and spreading less pollution.

Nature

A flower sings
 And a distant bell rings
 The trees are dancing
 And the water is bouncing
 The leaves are falling

And the plants are growing
 Such a beautiful sky
 It inspires me to fly
 The dark and the silent night
 Hoping for a future bright.

My Family

My family is special as we all live together.
We laugh together, we eat together,
we watch together and we play together.
My family is special as we all live together.
My father is loving, my mother is caring,
and I have a sister who is amazing.
My family is special as we all live together.
I have two grandmas and I have two grandpas,
I have two aunts and I have two uncles.
Sometimes we are together and sometimes apart,
but I love them with all my heart.
And they say that, I am the angel for them all
I too respect and adore them all!

CORONA

Corona is a dangerous pandemic sweeping across India and the world. As a result of this, our economy is getting destroyed slowly. However, I believe everything has a positive side. The sun always shines once the dark clouds go away.

Corona is one such dark cloud, which will eventually lead us to optimistic sunshine. Here is an account of what keeps me going during this tough time. I have become more disciplined and more obedient. I am beginning to appreciate the simple things in life. I have started eating home cooked food. My parents have tried different types of recipes on me. My father has also started eating veggies. We live together 24/7. We play carrom , snakes and ladders, break the pyramid and other games. Me and my mother together do so much work. We bake cakes, make garlic bread and Dalgona coffee. Doing things together is making me more responsible.

A few days ago, I made a tent house at my place and decorated it with lights and my mother's dupattas. It is a mesmerizing sight.

Corona allows mother nature to breathe and regain all its past glory. There is less pollution, and greenery is all around. I saw blue and green tiny birds near my house. It looks as if the birds are happy and are singing songs.

But I miss my school. I wish everything will be normal soon so that I can join my school again. I wish to meet my teachers and friends as soon as possible.

Mini's Kite

(Adjective story)

Timmy and Mini were playing with a shiny and colourful kite. The kite belonged to Mini. The kite got stuck on one of the branches of a big mango tree. Both of them were trying to get the kite down carefully because the kite could tear, but they could not bring it down. Mini was really upset while Timmy was thinking of an idea to get the shiny kite down. Timmy came up with a bright idea that they could get a tall ladder to climb up the huge Mango tree. Mini ran excitedly to get a tall ladder from the dark garage. Timmy climbed up the ladder and got the kite down while Mini was holding the ladder from below. Later, Mini thanked Timmy generously.

My Two Dogs

My two dogs, my brave and powerful knights, two German shepherds with all their might,
 take care of my house day and night.
 They are too cute and naughty and with all their right, they wet the floors at night, our vet said not to be uptight.
 Their paws pause, when I tell them to stop,
 They wag their furry tails, when my mom reads me fairy tales.
 I eat dinner at eight, but they can't wait,
 I think they already ate.
 Whenever a stranger climbs our stairs,
 they shout, scare and stare,
 wearing new collars, they happily bear my weight,
 they are stronger than a grizzly bear.
 At the age of two they are full grown and strong,
 but they groan if their paws get stuck in the door for long .
 They love eating ice, you can see the sparkle in their eyes
 They sniff with their nose,
 they immediately know when I come home.
 When in extreme pain,
 they stare out of the window pane.
 When our family goes for vacation, we miss their action.
 I get weak in my knees,
 when I see them after weeks.
 My love for them is immense,
 I am grateful to these four legged gems.

NATURAL SUPER HEROES

One day a village teacher was teaching the children the importance of having protective foods like fruits and vegetables. So she took all the children to the theatre to show a play on fruits as Super heroes. The teacher took all the children in the bus. They were very excited when the play started. Here comes , The very first one in a bright red suit with a green shirt, if you have me everyday, you do not need to go to the doctor. Can you guess who I am?

Children replied : Apple , the superhero answered "But I am Chapple "

Now a King came in a bright yellow gown, the children got excited and clapped. The hero asked 'I' am the king of fruits all of you wait for me, who am I ? "

The children replied "Mango! "

The mango replied "I am spider mango, I give you strength to fight diseases."

Now the little monkey came jumping on the stage, the children giggled when they saw them. A man with a green and yellow robe appeared, the monkey started clinging to it. The children started shouting banana, banana, but he said "I am your Ban-man. If you have me I will give you full strength, it will be a full meal."

Then appeared another animal in an orange suit with a green hat and wished the children and asked "Who am I ? " The children excitedly answered "Orange!". He said "But I am your hero who fights and saves you form diseases and am full of essential vitamins. Therefore, I am your Hulk orange." Now came a strong fatso, summer favourite of all, our very own water-melon, in a bottle green suit with an attractive red hat with captain written on it. Captain Melon exclaimed that the children having it do not get dehydrated. Now came the last but not the least, our little lady hero in a beautiful red dotted dress. She introduced herself as Red Rie and told about her antioxidant properties and Vitamin A which was good for eyes. The children chorused "Cherry!".

Now all the super heroes came together, sang a song waved at the audience and bid goodbye . The children went home happily and told their parents about this lovely colourful depiction.

Rules for Online Classes

Once were three friends. Their names were Jack, Ron and Dev. Their teacher wanted an online meeting with them.

All the students started to prepare for the online meeting. Ron said " I am done and ready for my first online class." Jack said ' I am also ready". Dev said "I am ready too." Ron started the meeting, but Dev told him not to start the class alone. Then Ron started opening so many sites. Dev warned him not to open any website without asking his parents, as any stranger could come and hack his device. Ron said " Okay, so that means I must wait for the teacher." Dev said " Yes, you must wait for the teacher." Ron thanked Dev.

When the teacher started the meeting, Dev said "Now you can join the meeting as the teacher has started the meeting." When they joined the meeting, the teacher asked the students a question. Jack and Dev started shouting but Ron raised his hand. Ron said to Jack and Dev to raise their hands as their teacher had told them to follow rules when they attended online class otherwise there would be an echo and it would become very noisy. Jack and Dev thanked Ron.

The teacher appreciated all the learners as they had followed all the online learning rules. The meeting ended and all the three students said bye to the teacher. Their parents also praised them, and their mothers made their favourite dishes for lunch. All three were happy and promised to follow all the cyber security rules and online class discipline every time.

BISNU AND SCOOT

GRRR....AOOO....Woof- Woof....came the distant sound. It seemed to be coming from a dog facility for stray and abandoned dogs. The shelter was surrounded by tall, lush green mango trees. It looked as if it was a dense forest, almost like a painting.

There was a small cottage hidden among the trees made with bamboos. It was owned by a brawny looking man named Bisnu. He was a kind, good-spirited person who was affectionate and concerned about the dogs. He preferred living near the shelter as he wanted to spend more time with the dogs.

His favourite was a three legged dog named Scoot. He had big brown eyes full of love. On seeing Bisnu every morning Scoot's heart exploded with happiness. Bisnu always carried a pack of biscuits and Scoot ran wildly around Bisnu every time!

Bisnu also liked a blind dog named Dash. When Dash heard Bisnu's footsteps, he always took three laps around Bisnu, bumping most of the times. Bisnu just adored that about him.

All the dogs living there were unloved and brought from the streets. Bisnu also liked two more dogs named Buster and Savage. Buster was a dog who had paralysis and couldn't walk to save his life. Every time Buster saw Bisnu, it started barking as if he was calling him to scratch him on the neck. Savage was an injured dog who sat at the entry with his friends Rocky, Oreo and Sparky. When any dog howled in the night, Bisnu got him to his cottage so that it didn't feel lonely. There was a batch of naughty, playful dogs who played 'fetch the ball' with Bisnu every evening.

Occasionally visitors came and saw different dogs because they wanted to adopt and give them the comfort of a good home. One day a boy, Bumra came to the dog shelter and observed how the dogs were behaving. He decided that this is the perfect dog shelter to adopt a dog from.

While strolling around the shelter, Bumra spotted Scoot. He was surprised to see a three legged dog running so fast. He asked Bisnu if he could adopt Scoot and take him home. He loved dogs too and was considerate towards them. As Bisnu was kind he allowed Burma to take Scoot along with him even though Scoot was his favourite.

Bumra took good care of Scoot by feeding him, taking him for walks and playing with him. He gave him a bath every weekend and also gave him toys. Somehow, Scoot seemed unhappy. And Bumra wondered why it was so. It seemed that Scoot loved Bisnu and he was missing him terribly. Seeing all this, Bumra decided to take Scoot back to his old shelter. On meeting Bisnu, Scoot ran wildly around him and started to jump on him.

Bisnu was thrilled to have Scoot back in his shelter and he felt his family was once again complete.

Little Sister

Once upon a time there was a boy named Leo .

Leo had 2 sisters . The elder one was Tulip and Daisy was the younger one. Leo and Tulip did not like Daisy as she had scars on the face. Whenever Daisy wanted to play with them they did not listen to her. So, Daisy played with her toys alone and felt sad all the time.

One day Leo and Tulip were walking on the side of the road and were making fun of their little sister. They didn't realize that there was a pothole ahead and both of them fell into it. As they screamed for help, Daisy heard them and came to rescue them. She called people for help.

The people pulled them out of the pothole . Both, Leo and Tulip were in tears. They thanked their little sister for her help and apologized for their behaviour. After this all three of them always played together.

From this story we learn that we should not make fun of some one and we should help others.

Once there was a balloon, she was a mighty one,
and she would always rise to the sun.
Her mother called-balloon balloon,
and she found her flying near a famous saloon.
While she was watching her, she turned pretty and pink,
but suddenly she saw her falling into the sink.
She went through a pipe,
and when she landed, she flew to the jungle, where people hike.
She was a mighty one,
So she found her way back home.

The Girl who Found a Magic Wand

Once in a faraway village, there lived a girl named Rosie. She was a very kind-hearted and an intelligent girl. One day while walking back from the market, carrying vegetables and bread, she came across an old lady. The old lady told her that she was very poor and was starving. So, Rosie gave her a blanket and all the food she could afford and told her to rest. The old lady suddenly turned into a fairy! Rosie was astonished and surprised. The fairy said "Rosie, because of your kindness, I have finally turned back into a fairy. Thank you! But now, I need your help. We need to go all the way to Argentina and at the airport, there is a secret passage which only fairies can open. We need a girl who can answer all the difficult questions and prove to the horph (head of a man body of a horse) that she can rise to the challenge. After the task is completed, I will finally be able to meet my family." Rosie was too stunned for words, but she agreed to help the old lady.

Rosie was a responsible girl, so she told her parents everything, to seek their permission in order to help the fairy. They began their travel to Argentina and headed straight to the airport. The fairy opened the secret passage at the airport. Right at the entrance, the horph was standing. He stopped them and said no one could pass, not unless they answered 1000 simple questions or one tough question. Now, Rosie had had a long travel and was tired after the long journey. So, she opted for the one tough question.

The horph asked Rosie, "What is behind time?" Rosie thought for a while but couldn't get the answer. She then applied her logical thinking, smiled and then looking confidently she replied, "the back of a clock." The Horph was very happy with the correct answer given by Rosie. He then led Rosie and the fairy to the fairy's family. The fairy was so happy to be united with her family and she thanked Rosie profusely. The fairy showed Rosie around the village and introduced her to the family members. Rosie was now worried about going back home and asked the fairy how she would get back.

The fairy said she would give her a magic portal, with which Rosie could travel back to her hometown. While walking, Rosie she fell over something. It was not a stone or a brick but a magic wand! She asked the fairy if she could take it. She thought that she could use that wand to heal people and also use it for their good. The fairy agreed. When she reached back home everybody in her village was very happy to see her. From that day onwards, she helped all her people of the village in medical issues and physical fitness with her magic wand and everybody thanked her. She was very happy because she thought that the fairy could not have given her a better gift than the magical wand.

POLLUTION

Once upon a time, there was a boy called Jimmy. He lived in Florida. He was very happy to shift to Noida, but he became upset and unhappy for Noida was not a very clean place. One day, while going to school, he thought school would be wonderful, but it wasn't! He noticed that there were no plants or flowers in the school. A boy named Tim came and sat next to him and asked him the reason for him being so upset.

Then next day Jimmy was very happy to see Tim again and luckily their teacher told them they could sit next to one another and work. During recess, Jimmy told Tim that he had lived in Florida and that he thought Noida was very polluted and then Tim shared that he felt they should get together to do about it. Jimmy nodded and agreed.

When the bell rang, Tim went to Jimmy's house to discuss what they could do to make Noida a more beautiful city. Jimmy thought they could make posters and Tim thought that they could tell people not to use plastic bags and use jute bags instead. He could also tell everyone to grow more trees. They shared their ideas with each other, and started making posters to give to the entire neighbourhood.

The next day at school, everybody waited for Jimmy and Tim to arrive. As soon as they arrived, all the teachers and students started clapping for them and they couldn't believe their eyes! Jimmy asked, "What is all this clapping for?" Then Principal Ma'am came forward and said that everyone had read the posters and had decided to grow more trees. They also made plans of starting a campaign named, 'GROW MORE TREES!' This made Jimmy and Tim feel very proud of themselves.

United by Hearts

A community is an area where we all share our personal space. We all thrive for our goals and motives. This is a general vision shared on a global basis. Some move overseas for betterment in life. However we all are united and driven by same the goals. The art piece depicts my vision how we are successfully overcoming this pandemic. It is regardless of caste, colour or creed. I am not only a proud Indian but a noble human being who has an agenda of not giving up but making it through.

My New Normal Story

I went to my nani's house in Muzzafar Nagar after getting an e pass. It was altogether a different experience this time. My maasi made me sit on her scooty and we went for a ride every day. I created puppet animals and did a puppet show for them. My whole family also enacted the Ramyana play. I played the role of Sita, my mother was Suparnakha and my father was Ravan. We all enjoyed a lot and learnt as well. My biggest achievement was to ride a cycle without supporters. One thing that I missed during this lockdown is having pizza from a pizzeria. I am eagerly waiting for the vaccine so that everything is back to old normal. I wish I had superpowers to destroy Corona and make everyone safe.

NUMBERS TAKE A VACATION

I woke up at the usual time. I think ! My watch had no numbers. I went out of my room but the big wall clock outside had no numbers as well. Confused I ran to my mom. When I went to their bedroom, I saw that they were also confused. When my mother saw me, she said "Go get ready for virtual classes". I hurriedly got ready and sat at my computer but was not able to unlock it because it was locked with a pin code and there were no numbers on the laptop. With my parents and another computer's help I somehow managed to enter the school account. To my utter dismay I saw that it was lunch break! Devastated , I tried to solve the problem. Suddenly, I had an idea. I grabbed a pencil, ran to the balcony and half-sawed the pencil into a flower pot full of soil. With the pencil's help, I got to know that the last period was about to begin. I checked my timetable and saw that it was mathematics period. I realised that it was Independence Day and I was dressed in a saree to celebrate it. When I joined, I saw that our teacher was confused. She was just about to say something when my alarm rang. I woke up, startled. After a while, I realized that it was all a dream. But wait a minute I was actually wearing a saree

MISSING SCHOOL

- I miss my school,
- I miss my teachers,
- And their rules.
- I miss my school,
- Where my friends are so cool.
- I miss my school,
- And miss jumping in the pool.
- I miss my school,
- Miss my dance teacher who is supercool.
- I miss my class and the playground too
- I miss school, do you miss school too?

Flood on the Eighth Floor

This incident happened when I was in Kanpur with my parents and grandparents. One day it was blazing hot and my mom wished that it would rain.

My mom's wish came true, there was a humongous dust storm and after the dust storm settled, the unexpected happened. It started to rain and then it started to rain heavily and by the way, it was the first rain of the season, which was acidic.

It was raining cats and dogs. Water came into the eighth floor from the gaps in the window panes. We lived on that floor so, we took the wipers and started to drag the acid water into the bathroom.

My parents and grandparents took out the electric wires and I started panicking about an electric shock when they were taking out the wires from the switchboards.

It was drizzling and my dad thought that we should go on the terrace and I thought that it would be a brilliant idea so, we went on the terrace and had lots of fun.

When I came down stairs, took a bath with warm water and saw that the whole house was neat and clean.

This was the best day in Kanpur!!!

I learnt that we must try to stay happily in difficult times!

Corona Virus – A Global Crisis

Corona Virus being a global crisis has been creating a panic situation. Emergency steps started to be taken . To begin with ,as a precaution, the people started buying masks and sanitizer in a hurried way and the police also took an initiative and started distributing masks and sanitizers to not so well informed, poor and under privileged people to protect them from being affected by this virus. The virus spread when a human who had the virus met another human. When the government learnt of the cause, it announced a lock down of 21 days for social distancing which is called the quarantine period.

The government took full action regarding the people who did not take the pandemic seriously and went outside just for fun despite knowing the outcome. This showed that people are not diligent even when it's about their own life. The public was waiting curiously for the announcement about the lockdown and it was extended by the government. When the people heard that the lock down will be extended , they got desperate and started taking wrong actions because of the announcement .

The doctors are concerned about how many people these corona virus affected patients are meeting on a daily basis and they are worried about the future.

Mr. Bear's cake

Once upon a time there was a bear who was baking a cake. His name was Mr Bear. Just when Mr Bear had finished baking the cake and was going to have a huge bite, in came Mr Fox. Mr Fox said "How delicious your cake looks." Mr Bear was kind and asked Mr Fox if he would like to have a piece. Mr Fox said "yes please". But just then came Mrs Squirrel, Mrs Cat and Mr Mouse and they all requested the bear for a piece of cake.

Mr Bear shared his cake with everyone and he was left with none for himself. So, all of them got together and got the ingredients to bake another delicious cake and they also added cherries , apples and honey. They requested Mr Bear to bake another cake. Together, they made the most delicious cake and all of them enjoyed eating it with Mr Bear having the biggest piece.

Sharing is caring and sharing makes everything more fun .

Princess and her Favourite Elsa Dress.

Once there was a princess and her name was Inaaya. She lived in a beautiful palace. She loved to dress up as Elsa (an animated character). She adored blue colour. Playing with her little sister Anna was her hobby. They liked to run around the table. The two of them had lots of fun while dancing. They used to play in their tent house. They loved to eat candies and sweets. They liked to colour and draw too. The two liked to read and write stories. They also learnt to see the wall clock. They lived happily ever after in their palace.

CIRCLE OF LIFE

(Poetic conversation between a deer and a tree)

You and me are two living lives

On this planet Earth that is so wise.

Lush green forests that I call my home

Is made of you and you in abundance.....!

Without you I cannot survive,

Without me the carnivorous cannot exist,

The cycle of food starts with you

The cycle of food ends in...you

Springing back to life again...!

This circle of life should be never ending

But for a being who thinks himself to be too good.....

Who otherwise is dumb in his mind...

Who otherwise is greedy in his soul...

He is who we call a Man , so selfish....!

I wish we could tell this Man to act wise.....

So that he, you and me could together make this world thrive....as together we make the circle of life!

सूरज

सुबह-सुबह जब सूरज आया,
सूरज ने चिड़ियों को जगाया।
चिड़ियों ने फिर हमें उठाया,
सूरज ने अपनी रोशनी से दिन बनाया।
हम सब ने मिलकर खाना खाया।

पुलिस

मैं हूँ एक पुलिस वाला,
अपने देश का रखवाला।
सबको मैं सुरक्षित करता,
कभी किसी से भी नहीं डरता।
बूढ़ा, बच्चा या हो नारी,
सबके प्रति करता वफ़ादारी।
मेरी इयूटी मेरी शान,
चाहे गँवानी पड़ जाए जान।

मेरी नानी

मेरी नानी बहुत सयानी, रोज़ मुझे सुनाती कहानी।
मुझे बहुत से फल खिलाती, मेरे लिए चिकन बनाती।
हैं वे बहुत रचनात्मक, खुशी से रहती जगमग।
मेरे साथ खेल खेलती, मौज-मस्ती खूब करती।
पढ़ाई में मुझे सहारा देती, श्रुतलेख का अभ्यास कराती।
63 वर्ष की हो गई हैं इस बार, फिर भी नई चीज़ें सीखने को
हैं तैयार।

कोरोना और हमारे नायक

कोरोना का पहला मरीज़ मिला था 2019 में,
तभी से सबने इसके खिलाफ़ लड़ना
शुरु किया था मिलकर।
फिर बैठ गए सब घर के अंदर,
चाहे भारत हो या लंदन।
डर बैठा था सबके दिलों में,
फिर भी हमारे रक्षक निकले घरों से।
डॉक्टर, पुलिस और सफ़ाई वाले,
ये ही हैं आज हमारे सच्चे रखवाले।

हमारी धरती माता

धरती माँ हमारी जीवन दाता,
इस माता से जुड़ा हुआ है सारे जग का नाता।
जन्म हुआ यहीं हमारा, इसने ही जीवन भी सँवारा।
हमारी धरती बड़ी अपार, इसमें फैला है सारा संसार।
धरती को नहीं ज़रा भी अभिमान,
हमारी धरती बड़ी महान।
धरती के हम पर अनगिनत उपकार,
ये सब हैं धरती के परोपकार।
सुंदर-सुंदर बाग-बगीचे हैं धरती पर,
खूबसूरत पर्वतों का नज़ारा धरती पर।
नदियों की बहती धारा है इस धरती पर,
खेतों में हरी-भरी फ़सलों की बहार धरती पर।
पेड़ों पर चीं-चीं करती चिड़ियों की पुकार है धरती पर,
सब कुछ हरा-भरा है इस धरती पर।
इसलिए धरती माता हमारी जीवन दाता,
इस माता से जुड़ा हुआ है सारे जग का नाता।

मस्त आज़ादी

सारे बच्चे हो जाओ मस्त,
आ गया पंद्रह अगस्त।
देश बना था दूल्हा इस दिन, आज़ादी बन गई थी दुल्हन।
देश वासियों के जीवन से भाग गई थी उलझन।
अपनों ने अपने लिए बनाया अपना संविधान,
सबको मिले समान अधिकार, बन गया ऐसा विधान।
सबको मिले हक - सुरक्षा, स्वास्थ्य और पोषण का, ना हो वातावरण भय, रोग और कुपोषण का।
मिले साथ परिवार का, मिले छूत और मनोरंजन,
ये सब हैं अपनी आज़ादी के व्यंजन।
इस आज़ादी ने दिया हमको एक नया नाम,
भारतवासी कहलाना बन गया अपनी पहचान।
सुमान शिक्षा के अधिकार से विकास-
पूँज का उजियारा होगा,
घर-घर से निकले इंदिरा-जवाहर, ऐसा हमारा नारा होगा।
सारे बच्चे हो जाओ मस्त,
आ गया पंद्रह अगस्त।

भारत प्यारा देश हमारा
 भारत प्यारा देश हमारा।
 हम हैं उसके नन्हे बच्चे,
 कितने अच्छे, कितने सच्चे।
 है सबसे ही प्रेम हमारा,
 भारत प्यारा देश हमारा।

बारिश
 बारिश रिमझिम आती है,
 पौधों को जगाती है,
 धरती खुश हो जाती है।

पक्षी गाना गाते हैं,
 बच्चे नाव बनाते हैं,
 सब लोग खुश हो जाते हैं।
